YOU ARE INVITED TO AN OPEN HOUSE LIKE NO OTHER

Visit the U.S. Department of Energy Solar Decathlon for an unprecedented display of affordable green living and design. This prestigious competition features houses designed, built, and operated by collegiate teams from across the country and around the world.

- Tour the houses. Talk to the participating students about their amazing zero-energy projects.
- Gather ideas for use in your own home. Discover how to save money with energy-efficient construction, appliances, and renewable energy systems.
- Learn about the technologies. Find out how you can reduce carbon emissions without sacrificing the comforts of home.

Mark your calendar for the U.S. Department of Energy Solar Decathlon 2015!

The team houses are open to the public free of charge over two long weekends:

Thursday, Oct. 8–Sunday, Oct. 11, 2015
Thursday, Oct. 15–Sunday, Oct. 18, 2015
